

December 2015 Script:

Deb:

During this season of celebration, MERIL is thankful to celebrate more than 20 years of helping individuals live independently. MERIL provides life changing services and we're dedicated to helping people discover their strengths, identify options, and set goals to assist them in becoming more independent while staying in their own homes.

Did you know that MERIL provides skilled home health and in-home services, interpreting services, accessibility consultation and transition services?

Empowering people to live life fully - is MERIL's mission!

Call us.....we would love to help you!
